

Compare-Contrast Paragraph

Supporting Paragraph 1 Forest Fun things to do Animals to see Good ones by my house	Supporting Paragraph 1 Fun things to do Forest Beach Lake
Supporting Paragraph 2 Beach Fun things to do Animals to see Good ones by my house	Supporting Paragraph 2 Animals to see Forest Beach Lake
Supporting Paragraph 3 Lake Fun things to do Animals to see Good ones by my house	Supporting Paragraph 3 Good ones by my house Forest Beach Lake

One-Item-per-Paragraph

The atmosphere is the best part of Sam's Restaurant. The food is not always great, but it is usually good. And the prices can be high, which is why I don't go there every day. But Sam's is near the beach, and you can hear the ocean. When it comes to atmosphere, you can't beat Sam's.

Point-by-Point Paragraph

When it comes to atmosphere, the three restaurants are very different. First is Sam's Restaurant, which is near the beach. Next is Jane's Restaurant, which is a good place to take kids. Finally, John's Restaurant plays good music. As you can see, each restaurant has a different atmosphere.

These two paragraphs are made in different ways. But both have three parts that are the same:

- Both begin with a topic sentence.
- Both have at least three supporting sentences.
- Both end with a clincher sentence.